

Reciprocal Licensing Agreements with Other States

The State of Iowa Electrical Examining Board has reciprocal licensing agreements with Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Wisconsin. The applicant must have passed a State-sponsored examination with a score of 75% or greater, held the qualifying license for 1 year which cannot have been expired, suspended, or revoked; cannot have taken the Iowa exam and failed it; and must meet additional Iowa licensure requirements in order for the license to qualify for reciprocity.

Reciprocal Journeyman Licenses:

- Minnesota Class A Journeyman license may reciprocate to an Iowa Journeyman Class A license, or an Iowa Journeyman Class A license may reciprocate to a Minnesota Class A Journeyman license.
- Montana Journeyman license may reciprocate to an Iowa Journeyman Class A license, or an Iowa Journeyman Class A license may reciprocate to a Montana Journeyman license.
- Nebraska Journeyman license may reciprocate to an Iowa Journeyman Class A license, or an Iowa Journeyman Class A license may reciprocate to a Nebraska Journeyman license.
- North Dakota Journeyman license may reciprocate to an Iowa Journeyman Class A license, or an Iowa Journeyman Class A license may reciprocate to a North Dakota Journeyman license.
- South Dakota Journeyman license may reciprocate to an Iowa Journeyman Class A license, or an Iowa Journeyman Class A license may reciprocate to a South Dakota Journeyman license.
- Wisconsin Journeyman Electrician license may reciprocate to an Iowa Journeyman Class A license, or an Iowa Journeyman Class A license may reciprocate to a Wisconsin Journeyman Electrician license.

Reciprocal Master or Electrical Contractor Licenses:

- Minnesota Class A Master license may reciprocate to an Iowa Master Class A license, or an Iowa Master Class A license may reciprocate to a Minnesota Class A Master license.
- Montana Master license may reciprocate to an Iowa Journeyman Class A license, or an Iowa Master Class A license may reciprocate to a Montana Journeyman license.
- Nebraska Electrical Contractor license may reciprocate to an Iowa Journeyman Class A license, or an Iowa Master Class A license may reciprocate to a Nebraska Journeyman license.
- North Dakota Master license may reciprocate to an Iowa Journeyman Class A license, or an Iowa Master Class A license may reciprocate to a North Dakota Journeyman license.
- South Dakota Electrical Contractor license may reciprocate to an Iowa Master Class A license, or an Iowa Master Class A license may reciprocate to a South Dakota Electrical Contractor license.
- Wisconsin Master Electrician license may reciprocate to an Iowa Master Class A license, or an Iowa Master Class A license may reciprocate to a Wisconsin Master Electrician license.